“Our History Paves Our Tomorrows”

Conversation at the “T”

AUGUST 25, 2016 ~ 5pm – 6:30pm

Remembering Detroit’s “Black Bottom”

Black Bottom was a predominantly black neighborhood that was demolished for redevelopment for Lafayette Park and I-75

“Learn how Detroit’s African-American union households established the historic “Black Bottom” neighborhood, and how we can lay the groundwork for Detroit’s rebirth.”
